PROF. E. DARTLEY, Business Manager

FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1892.

PERSONAL GOSPI.

Mr. Tom. W. Long and wife have returned from their vacation.

Mrs. Jessie Stamps, of Henderson, the guest of Mrs. T. W. Long.

Miss Emily Ware is visiting in the Newland neighborhood.

Mr. J. L. Dagg, of Vidalia, La., is visiting relatives there.

Mr. Henderson Wade is visiting relatives at Cave Spring.

Rev. Lower, of Princeton, is in the city, the guest of Mr. N. Zimmerman.

Mrs. A. W. Pyle and daughter are visiting relatives in Logan county.

Miss Lizzie Ballard, of Nashville, is in the city on a visit to her mother.

Wid Nedley returned last Saturday from his New England summer course.

Mr. Jim. F. Danforth and wife are visiting relatives near Fairview this week.

Mrs. Nat. Utzinger has returned from a lengthy visit to relatives in Harrodsburg.

Judges McPherson and McCarron went to the Sabine picnic and speaking Saturday.

Mr. J. N. Pennington, of Winchester, is visiting relatives and friends in the eastern part of the state.

Mr. George Hall, who has been on a visit to his brother, Mr. Andrew Hall, returned to St. Louis Sunday.

Misses Maud Landier and Grace Turner, of Clarksville, are the guests of their uncle, Dr. J. P. Thomas.

Miss Addie Long, of Russellville, is visiting Miss Bell Ellis. She will also visit Miss Laura Carter of Benton town.

Mr. Walter Herpes, of Bowling Green, and Miss Kate Sprague, of Springfield, Mo., are visiting the family of Mr. D. F. Ferry.

Mrs. Katie Peyton, of the Cockey neighborhood, spent last week in the city with the family of her uncle, "Squire" Alex. Campbell.

Misses Patty and Bertha Thomas McDonald, of Nashville, are enjoying a visit to the family of Mr. Lynn McDonald, near Paducah.

Mr. G. C. Campbell, a member of the Board of Education of the City of Louisville, arrived in the city last Friday and will take a position with the Hopkinsville Steam Laundry.

THE LADIES.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the Automobiles and Auto Rambles in our city and other alluring scenes fit their favorite rounds. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of "California Fig Syrup Co., printed on the bottom of the package."

We have heard of some complaints from the farmers about sheep spraying in the shock.

Sara McCormick has recovered from her recent illness and is now again at the post of duty with Bryan & Tammy.

Mr. W. A. Reed, of Cockey, told to W. M. Girard ten very fat young cattle yesterday, which will average 1,000 lbs. per head.

Mr. Walter M. Hicks, of Humber son, is in the city introducing the Ideal Horse and Cart Injuctor and an improved coffee mill.

Mr. George C. Kirby is the owner of a pair of twin calves which he has named Cleo and Steve. This is another mark of the fidelity of the Brue family toward Democracy.

The report sent out from Green ville one day last week, to the effect that Mrs. Narciss Parks of this place, was dead, was an error. She had been quite sick, but was reported much better, and will recover from her illness.

The first station on the O. V. west of Hopkinsville, on the property of Mr. G. H. Moore, has been named Woodville. It would probably have been named "Moore's" but for the fact that it was a station of that name on the L. & N. near Guthrie.

Hundreds of people walk down the O. V. every Sunday to "The Three Bridges," at that point is now generally called "Three Bridges." The ladies and gentlemen go down to walk, and then driving down the track, and others off the Pinhook road as far as Mrs. Shippy's, where they turn down to the river.

The visit of Dr. Appelman, the specialist, will be Thursday, July 28, at the Phoenix Hotel. The Doctor is fast gaining an enviable reputation for his skill in the treatment of cases that even defied medical science, and gentle and courteous go down to walk, and then driving down the track, and others off the Pinhook road as far as Mrs. Shippy's, where they turn down to the river.

The Rev. Lowry, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has remained two powerful sermons at the First Methodist church in this last Sunday morning and evening from the text "Jesus Only," and "What do you think of Christ?"

Mr. Lowry will be the city's principal speaker at the meeting of the International Order of Odd Fellows, a meeting scheduled for both sexes and under control of Louisville Presbytery.

HERE AND THERE.

Why Suffer?

Does it not seem strange that people will suffer with disease when a remedy can be had right at their door? Yet there are hundreds of Catsup, Hay Fever and other chronic diseases in the world which OVERTHURG THERAPY will give them almost instant relief and if taken as directed it will effect a permanent cure.

This is the reason above all others to treat CATARRH AND HAY FEVER.

This wonderful remedy is also excelled as a TONIC; being
NATURE'S OWN REMEDY FOR NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL PROSTRATION.

Will you pay to investigate this WONDERFUL REMEDY.
A full explanation will be given to any who write or call.
